

Singapore Test Lab (STL) Certification Schemes

Singapore Test Lab (STL) currently operates six comprehensive Certification Schemes to support a wide range of industries and regulatory requirements:

- Water Efficiency Labelling Scheme (WELS)
- Fire Safety Product Scheme (FSPS)
- Potable Water Fittings Scheme (PWFS)
- Personal Protective Equipment Scheme (PPES)
- Product Listing Scheme (PLS)
- STL Test Certificate (STL TC)

These schemes are designed to meet diverse regulatory and industry requirements, supporting manufacturers, suppliers, and stakeholders in bringing compliant products to market.

Track Record

To date, we have issued more than 2,600 certificates across our certification schemes, demonstrating a strong, credible, and growing presence in the industry.

Each STL certificate reflects a commitment to safety, quality, and compliance, supported by rigorous testing, detailed evaluation, and structured certification processes.

Verify Your Certificate with Confidence

Ensuring the validity of your certification is simple and transparent. Users can conveniently verify their certificates through the STL Certification Directory. This provides a reliable and transparent way to confirm certification status and ensure compliance.
